"The IMF provides an excellent opportunity for me to interact with a cross industry group of my peers in both formal as well as informal settings. The information I've gained through these interactions has been invaluable to me. I also highly value the relationships I've been able to establish over the years with the forum members."

- Phil Folz, Sr. Vice President,
Corporate & Financial Systems,

The IMF is the best source of unbiased information in IT. Since 1975, we have remained unique as a vendor-free, enterprise-wide membership for IT executives to share best practices and ideas. IT Financial Management (ITFM) is an elite group that includes IT Finance leads from some of the best-recognized and most successful organizations in the world.

ITFM members enjoy...

Quarterly Meetings

The group meets quarterly to discuss topics, network, and share ideas.

Upcoming Meeting:

August 8 - 9, 2013

Third Quarter Meeting
Hartford, CT

Host: The Hartford Financial Services Group

November 7 - 8, 2013

Fourth Quarter Meeting
Seattle, WA

Host: Boeing Corporation

Monthly Calls

There are monthly conference calls on a variety of member-initiated topics.

Upcoming Calls:

- June 19, 2013
- July 17, 2013
- September 18, 2013
- October 16, 2013

Ad Hoc Queries

Members often conduct ad hoc queries of the group on any issue that is top of mind. IMF has pulled together confidential discussions among members on a variety of topics including:

- Discussions on what to expect when outsourcing
- Questions on pricing
- Enterprise licensing agreements
- Recommendations on vendors

Group Cost/Quality Benchmarks

The group collaborates on different benchmarking projects throughout the year. Right now we're performing a benchmark study on Desktop Email. These studies can cover:

- IT Spending Overview
- Storage
- Desktop
- Messaging
- Data Network
- Voice Network
- Applications
- Service Desk
- Mainframe
- Servers

IT Management Membership

In addition to ITFM, The IMF also offers companies an IT Management membership. The IT Management group focuses on all aspects of IT, from strategic to tactical. It is open to all IT employees in a member company with no usage limits. This gives your IT organization access to the following IMF services:

Forums, Web Forums, Connect Discussions, IT Reports, and our Benchmark Forum

Consulting Services

Global Information Partners is the consulting arm of the Information Management Forum. We are dedicated to exceeding client expectations in measurement and financial governance of large Information Technology organizations. Our ideas are based on extensive experience and not encumbered by outdated tools and models.
